Notes

'Gotham Knights': Rahart Adams Joins The CW's DC! Filming in September 2022, Adams will play the series-regular role of Brody. Confident and charismatic, Brody's got the brains and the looks — and he knows it. However, his entitled attitude covers his insecurity and jealousy of anyone who rivals him.

Born in Melbourne, to first-generation Australian-Pakistani/Maltese parents and the second oldest of four children. Rahart Adams is an accomplished actor whose career thrives predominantly between The United States and Australia.

Adams made his Television debut on the Australian soap opera - Neighbours as Alistair O'Laughlin (2012 - 2013). Subsequently, Rahart went on to play the lead role of Sam Conte in the hit ABC series Nowhere Boys (2013-2016).

Nowhere Boys has won multiple awards around the world including the 2016 International Emmy for Best Children's Television Series, the 2016 British Academy Film Award for Best Children's Television Series, and Multiple Australian Logies also for Best Children's Television Series.

During his time filming Nowhere Boys from 2013-2016, Rahart also played the Lead role of Jax Novoa in the hit Nickelodeon TV Series: Every Witch Way and then as the lead role of Davis Pell in Liar, Liar Vampire (2015).

Rahart in quick succession then went on to play the supporting role of Bradley in the indie satirical comedy EMO the Musical (2016), the supporting role of rookie professional footballer Rafiq Bouramy in the beloved Australian TV Series House Husbands (2017), then as Jaeger Pilot Cadet Tahima Shaheen in Pacific Rim: Uprising (2018); then soon after that as the lead supporting role of Nick in the indie thriller Starlight (2018). Rahart also reprised his role in seasons two, three, and four as male love interest Kent Saydak in the hit Youtube Premium Series Foursome (2016-2018).

During his downtime, Rahart trained and performed at institutions like The Beverly Hills Playhouse, Upright Citizens Brigade improv comedy theatre, and Lesly Kahn & Company.
