Notes

Based in Melbourne, Heath Anderson has been following his acting pursuit since graduating from the full time acting course at Actors Centre Australia (Sydney) in 2018. He has been consistently refining his craft by performing in indie theater, touring Shakespeare's repertoire in high schools & shooting scenes he enjoys from his favourite TV shows & films.

From the young age of 10 when Heath first entered drama classes to engage his broad imagination, he knew that acting was a path that called him. These classes helped him understand and appreciate the functionings of the human psyche & how it reflects itself in character expression throughout our world.

With this attention to detail & Heath's grounded work ethic, he is a reliable & unique actor that thrives in creative environments. Heath also produces music under multiple aliases as another creative outlet.
