Riley was born in Melbourne and lived in the Bayside area for most of his life. Riley's disability is Anxiety which is managed by medication. He discovered drama classes at school and was known for his well-modulated, deep, and expressive voice. Riley's strawberry blond hair, green eyes and strong frame, and his resonant voice are suited to quiet, thoughtful, and authoritative roles, as well as fantasy and mythic drama. He is intelligent and sensitive, with emotional maturity that makes him easy to work with and to direct.

Voice acting has been a passion for Riley ever since he was a small boy watching cartoons and listening to audiobooks on CDs. He has voice over experience in audio drama and advertising formats and works from a small home studio in Melbourne. He is competent in several accents.
