Notes

Natasha Luscri was born in Adelaide to Southern Italian parents and is a dual Italian and Australian citizen.

She has trained across various techniques including Stanislavski, Stella Adler, Meisner, Yat Malmgren, Howard Fine and Uta Hagen. She has worked with teachers such as Tony Knight (former head of NIDA) and David Meador (Director at the State Theatre Company in SA) where she has performed work by Chekhov, Shakespeare, Caryl Churchill, Suzie Miller and Kae Tempest. In particular, Natasha loves Meisner and has enjoyed her work informed by Carl Jung, deeply resonating with his work on Archetypes.

Her credits include several TVCs including Wolf Blass Wines, SA Country Fires Service (CFS) and VALO 500 and corporate videos for AHPRA and Anglicare.

She enjoys keeping fit, running and lifting weights and can proudly do chin ups.
